

Free Short Courses

Australia is currently short of 2,300 workers in cyber security, with an expected demand of at least 17,600 additional professionals required in the sector by 2026. Close the gap with FREE online QUT Short Courses, in partnership with AIIA. Choose from Cyber Security for Non-Cyber Professionals, or Strategic IT-Enabled Innovation.

These courses are available through an online learning platform. You can commence anytime and courses are self-paced. Free registration ends 30th November 2021.
