

Shalom College Uniform Shop – Sale of Second Hand Uniforms

Families may wish to sell their second-hand uniforms on consignment with our Uniform Shop.

Sale prices for each item of clothing are determined by our Uniform Shop Coordinator. Following sale, a payment less commission will be made to the parent/guardian who lodged the uniforms for sale. Preferred methods of payment will be either via direct transfer or credit to school fees account.

All second-hand uniforms presented for sale must be of the current style. They must be satisfactorily laundered, without stains and in a reasonable condition. The Uniform Shop Coordinator will ascertain whether each item is suitable for re-sale. If it is felt that certain items are not satisfactory, the parent/guardian will agree that the college pass them on to St Vincent De Paul Society for donation to Papua New Guinea. If you wish to donate any second-hand items to the college uniform pool – these uniforms must also be of an acceptable standard.

Families who wish to donate any other out-dated uniforms (eg shirts or sport shirts) to Papua New Guinea are welcome to leave these at the Uniform Shop and we will pass on to the St Vincent de Paul Society. Could these items please be clearly marked as donations.

When presenting uniforms for sale, we kindly ask that you complete the information below and sign where indicated. We ask that each item of clothing be listed separately.
