COVID Changes –
South East Qld Lockdown Lifted

The Queensland Government has announced that the lockdown in the impacted areas of South East Queensland (SEQ) will end at 4.00 pm today. There are still additional restrictions in place for these areas. They remain classified as Impacted Areas.

- This development means that all students who were unable to attend school last week, due to them (or a member of their household) being in SEQ, can now attend school.
- There are still some restrictions in place. The restriction that still impacts our schools, is that there will still be a requirement (for relevant staff/students) to wear face masks at school until 14 days passed, since they were last in the Impacted Area.

Yours sincerely

Dan McMahon
